

What Must I do to go to Hell?

By Tony Melton

What must I do to go to Hell may seem like a strange question to you. However, it is a question that should enter the mind of many, especially after attending some of the modern-day funeral services. After we hear the “pastor’s” speech, we ask ourselves: “Do I know the person in that casket? Isn’t he the one who used to curse God with every other breath? Did he ever set foot in a church building except for weddings and funerals? But now, the preacher says that he’s saved, and that we will see him in heaven.”

How ungodly must a person live before he or she can be lost? I am sure many sinners who attend the funerals of their beer-drinking, vulgar-mouth friends wonder how they were ever saved. Nevertheless, they know they are because their “pastor” says so. The “pastor” says, “Oh, he believed in Jesus!” But we ask, “Does this nullify all the ungodly deeds he has committed?” The majority of the men and women who occupy the State prison in McAlester believe in Jesus. What ever happened to REPENTANCE? Does a man have to change? Or can he just touch his head while on his deathbed and say “I believe in Jesus” and be saved?

What an evil practice is taking place in pulpits throughout this country. So-called men of God are telling ungodly men and women that their dead loved ones - who never did anything to please God - will be in glory land. In essence, they are telling the sinners: “You don’t have to change! Just live like you are; your ungodly friends are saved and you will be too!” Satan has no greater instruments in his hands than men who have no respect for God’s word. Men who lie to people to gain their favor without regard for the many lost souls they are deceiving and destroying. The Bible says, “He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, Both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD (Proverbs 17:15). Malachi says that these type of men weary the Lord by saying, “Everyone who does evil Is good in the sight of the LORD, And He delights in them” (Malachi 2:17).
